Below is an example of the new Building Coordinator Form which will be required when being enrolled. The NCID for the employee/individual is needed to apply these credentials into the FMD Web Portal for creating Service and Work Requests. The remaining document will be populated just as before.